If COVID-19 has made it hard to pay your rent, you may be eligible for the CA COVID-19 Rent Relief program and receive eviction protections.

HAVE YOU RECEIVED AN EVICTION NOTICE?

YES

You have 15 days to:

- 1 Check your eligibility and apply for rent relief at HousingIsKey.com or by calling 833-430-2122 within 15 days of receiving notice from your landlord.
- AND
- 2 Tell your landlord immediately that you have applied for assistance (or intend to).

NO

Are you behind on rent and worried about being evicted?

YES

NO

If you are looking for other assistance, please visit housing.ca.gov/tenant/resources.

If you complete an application for the CA COVID-19 Rent Relief program, this may reduce your risk of eviction. Your landlord can't legally evict you for non-payment of COVID-related debt without also applying for the program.

If your landlord files paperwork (unlawful detainer) with a California court to have you legally evicted, this will result in a court summons, which you must respond to within five (5) business days.

Don't wait! Apply now at HousingIsKey.com or call 833-430-2122.

You won't be asked about citizenship and your information will be kept private. Assistance does not count as earned income for renters and will not affect eligibility for other state benefit assistance programs.

Sponsored by the State of California.
